

Boston 3 June 88.

My dear Mr Garrison,

I enclose

many thanks for standing in my place & presenting the able discourse of last Sunday. I am glad also that you took the theme on which we probably differ most, for this I don't think with you them. I let wish your views to be ably set forth before those who listen to me. Please accept the pericranial consideration also with the hearty thanks of Yours faithfully
Theodore Parker.
